

Tracy L Olson, MSW
601 E 3rd St
Marshfield, WI 54449
715-384-0080

EDUCATION:

Boston University School of Social Work, Boston, MA. Awarded M.S.W. degree, with emphasis in Clinical Practice, May 1992.

Viterbo College, LaCrosse, WI. Awarded B.S. degree in Psychology, May 1985.

LICENSURE:

Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) WI 3565-123, Since May, 1995.

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE:

Wise Mind Mental Health Clinic, Marshfield, WI, Jan 2014-Present. Co-Owner/Psychotherapist. Provision of Outpatient psychotherapy services to children (5 years and older), teens, and adults. Specialty practice in Dialectical Behavioral Therapy, including Skills training groups.

Marshfield Clinic Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Health, Marshfield, WI, April 1995-1997, 1999-2014.

Provided outpatient psychotherapy services as a Clinical Social Worker. This included evaluation, treatment planning, and individual and group psychotherapy as part of a multi-disciplinary team. Shared responsibility for after-hours call, including emergency department evaluations. Maintained a generalist practice, working with children, teens, adults, couples, families, and groups. Other department services and recognitions include:

Helped to establish procedures for served as a social work representative on Critical Incident Review Committee

One of two Client Rights Specialists for the department

Social Work Section Chief for 2 years

Developed and presented career day programs for local school

Representative on the Study of Suicide Committee for Wood County for 2 years

Worked with multi-disciplinary Childhood Obesity Clinic for 2 years
Member of work group to decrease no-shows in the department
Established and ran DBT Skills Training groups for adults
Established, trained clinicians in, and ran multi-family DBT Skills Training Group with adolescents and parents
Taught post-doctoral seminars on DBT and Skills Training Groups
Marshfield Clinic Shining Star Award recipient

Marshfield Clinic Employee Assistance Program, 1997-1999

Worked as an EAP counselor in the internal program and the Marshfield Clinic. Provided assessment, referral, short-term counseling, group conflict resolution, supervisory consultation, and in-service topics on a variety of topics (Stress Management, Dealing with Change, Life Balance, Dealing with Difficult People) Helped to initiate, market, and provide services to external contracts, where similar services were provided. Served as Department Representative to the Tor Dahl project for process improvement.

Androscoggin Valley Mental Health Center, Berlin, NH, May 1992-March 1995.

Provided a wide range of individual, marital, and group services for a diverse population of people as an outpatient therapist. Duties included evaluation, treatment planning, case management and coordination of services within the community.

AREAS OF SPECIALTY TRAINING

Dialectical Behavior Therapy, with Marsha Linehan, Ph.D. in 1990, and with other Behavioral Tech affiliates of Dr. Linehan throughout the course of my career. Specific trainings available upon request.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP:

Member of National Association of Social Workers

REFERENCES:

Available upon request